What’s in the Carry Case?

1. Recording unit
2. Head unit
3. 4 x Nose pads
4. 3 x Li-ion batteries
5. SD memory cards and sleeves
6. Calibration card
7. Microfiber cloth
8. Head strap
9. Cable clip

What’s in the Accessories Box?

1. 1 x Battery charger for Li-ion batteries
2. 1 x USB Type-C Ethernet adapter
3. 5 x Power cables for battery charger (EU, US, UK, AUS)
4. 1 x USB charger for Recording unit
5. 4 x plug adapters for USB charger (EU, US, UK, AUS)
6. 1 x Ethernet cable (3 meters)
7. SD card to USB Type-A adapter
8. 2 x Calibration cards
9. 10 x Calibration stickers
Preparing and Connecting Tobii Pro Glasses 3

1. Prepare the recording unit
   - Insert SD memory card
   - Insert charged battery

2. Install software
   Follow the links below for Windows® or Android™ installation
   - tobiipro.com/learn-and-support/downloads-pro
   - play.google.com — Search for Glasses 3

3. Attach the nose pad
   (Optional)

4. Attach the head strap

5. Connect the head unit
   Connect head unit cable to recording unit

6. Turn on the recording unit
   Press and hold the power button for a few seconds until the power LED stops flashing

7. Connect to your device
   Wireless
   Find and connect to your Pro Glasses 3 via WLAN.
   The network name corresponds to the serial number on the back of the recording unit.

   Wired
   If using a wired connection, securely connect the Ethernet cable to the recording unit and to your computer.

Recording unit LEDs

- Power Indicator LED
  - (LED solid green) The recording unit is powered on.
  - (~100-30% of battery power remaining.
  - (LED solid red) The recording unit is ready to start recording. The SD card can be removed.
  - (~29-10% of battery power remaining.

- Connection Status LED
  - (LED solid green) Recording unit is connected to head unit.
  - (LED solid red) There is less than enough space for 15 min. of recording.
  - (LED blinking red) The SD card is running out of space, only 5 min. of recording time remains. Stop any ongoing recording immediately and replace the card.
  - (LED blinking yellow) No SD card inserted, or there is something wrong with the SD card and it cannot be written to.

- SD Card Activity LED
  - (LED solid green) SD card is active.
  - (LED blinking red) The battery is out of power. Stop any ongoing recordings immediately and replace the battery.
  - (LED blinking yellow) SD card is not inserted or there is something wrong with the SD card and it cannot be written to.

Connection solid red)

(Optional)
Calibrate and Record with Pro Glasses 3

1 Set up recording

1. Select Glasses
2. Enter participant name
3. New recording

2 Perform the calibration

1. Wait for the software to identify the calibration card
2. Click the CALIBRATE button
3. Ready to start recording!

4. If calibration fails, try calibrating again. See the User’s Manual for troubleshooting tips.

3 Start a recording

1. Full screen
2. Record

4 Stop a recording

1. Cancel
2. Stop

5 Replay a recording

1. View Recordings
2. John Smith